The National Credit Under Demo

The statement that the Buchanan Ad ministration barrowed money at 12 per cent has been challenged repeatedly Democratic speakers and writers. This is sheer folly. The fact that a small loan of $10,000,000 could be obtained only in driblets, and at rates of interest ranging from 7 to 12 per cent per annum, is a matter of official record, running through several of the annual reports of the Treasury Department. (See Finance Re port for 1874, page 40 and 41.) The authorized loan was for $10,000,000. Of thi sum $9,940,700 were raised at the following raties of interest :

ing raties of interest:

$33,1,000 at 7, 5% and 10% per cent.

$33,000 at 70%, 10%, 10% and 11 per c.

amounted to $38,633,184 13. This shows how, after making a reduction of over three million dollars in the taxes, the revenues amounted to $287,482,039 10 for taxation should be accomplished since 1866, and the public debt in the same time reduced $500.000 and $500.000 to 1860. time reduced $659,388,260, with an actual reduction of $42,895,627 of the interest on the debt, certainly evinces both good statesmanship and careful economy.

The Cloud That Hangs Over the (From Blaine's speech at Warren, Ohio.) And now, gentlemen, more startling than anything else, on Thursday of last week there was a decision rendered in the city of Portland, State of Maine, in the United States Circuit Court, Judge Nathan Clifford presiding, with Daniel Clark, District Judge of New Hampshire, sitting with him—and I want the atten-tion of the lawyers again—confirming the judgment obtained against Neal Dow, of the 13th Maine Regiment in Louisiana giving judgment to the rebel against Dow personally for the sugar seized on his personally for the sugar seized on his plantation by a foraging party from his regiment. They were out foraging and seized some sugar, and the man sued for it, and Dow said, "If you are a loyal man we will give you a receipt, and you will easily get your pay forit." Now the sugar was used, and a large part of it tent to the hospitals. Dow says, "If you will show me your loyalty, I will give you a receipt," and he declined to doit and got judgment in a Louisiana court. The you a receipt," and he declined to do it and got judgment in a Louisiana court. The U.S. Circuit Court at Portland confirmed that judgment, and ordered execution to issue for $1,750. That being so, I say, gentlemen, will it not enable the man that owned the field at Appointant tox to collect ground rent from Grant for the occupancy of it and destruction of the finess and crops? There has never been so menacing a cloud as this hanging over after people. More than that this decision was warmly dissented from by Judge Clark, of New Hampshire. He

Was brought up in the true faith, but the Supreme Court overculed him in the person of Clifford. Clifford is an ingrain, hungry Democrat, double dyed and twisted, dyed in the wool, and coarse woel at that. (Much laughter.) And in my judgment, he has carried that case of eight years and never offered that decision until he in his ignorance believed in the continuation of the army in the South cannot be sued for every article of the separate of the army in the South cannot be sued for every article of the separate of the s isilon or division of the army article of trespass? [Laughter.]

Let me read to you the nature of the case. Ex-Gov. Wood of Vermont, a man of as pure a character as ever lived, writes over his name, "I have known Mr. Tilden for twenty years. I have debated this question with him personally, and I know that he holds the opinion that the war was unconstitutional. I heard him declare, in conversation with myself since the close of the war, that every man in the United States army that marched across Southern soil was a trespasser, and liable to suit for damages in an action for treapass." I think that Clifford read that opinion of Tilden the day before he made his decision in regard to Dow's sugat. And the Democrats tell you the Countitution forbids the payment of these claims. Never was anything more menacing or alarming than that.

1. Rutherford B. Hayes is a true manine every respect.
2. His past record is without stain.
3. He proffered his rervices to the dovernment in the hour of need.
4. He was a brave soldier, and shed his blood in defence of his country.
5. He has given his time and money for the good of the nation.
6. He has never betrayed a trust nor a friend.

friend.

7. He has never wronged a person on of a dollar which was due him; or failed to keep his promise to the humblest.

8. He has made a good Governor during three terms, and has kept himself clear of all jobs. His hands are as clean to-day as when he entered upon his duties as Governor of Ohio.

9. He is in favor of keeping faith with the nation's creditors, and redeeming every pledge made in time of war or peace.

10. He is in tayor of free schools and the maintenance of the system free from the maintenance of the system free from all sectarian influences.

11. He is earnestly in favor of the highest possible purity in the civil ser-vice, and would surround himself, if elected, with men of recognized ability and integrity.

12. His past record as a man, as an official, as a soldier, is the best proof of his eminent fitness for the high office of President.

President.

13. He belongs to the army of loyal men who love the Union and who have given evidence of their devotion to its highest interests.

14. His election would secure a sound currency, protect and improve the public credit, advance throughout the national honor, and restore to the people prosper-ity in all the great centres of trade and commerce.

15. Lastly. Rutherford B. Hayes is a model husband, father and friend, qualities which honor the man, and would honor the highest office within the gift of the needs.

honor the highest office within the gift of the people.

Can any one doubt the superior fitness of such a man for the Presidency? Can there be a possible risk in calling him to rule over the Republic? Is he not just the man that is needed to shape the destines of the next four years? Study his character, examine his record, weigh him in all those qualities which go to make up the citizen and the statesman, and he will come out of the examination the same noble man. With such a leader the Republican party must win; with such a President the nation could not help advance in the path of material progress.

Men Who Ought to Be Deleated. [From the N. Y., Herald.]

The Democrats of North Carolina at pear to have made a blunder in nominal ing one Vance for Governor. This Vance The contrast: The Government is now who seems to be a person of very little funding its debt at 5 and 4½ per cent, and the 4 per cent funding bonds will be eaby, in a public speech, said: "Remember, gerly sought for as soon as the 4½ per that all of our brave Southern heroes centums are disposed of and authority is given to put the 4 per cent bonds on the market. The increased strength of the public reform and Tilden." If the people of credit is indicated by the rates of interest paid North Carolina are wise they will not wote for a man who has a little same, as what those paid by the Buckanan Administration utter such a brutality as this. The Liberty of Will-Making. Judge Paxson, of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, in a recent decision thus defended the liberty of will-making. "The growing disposition of courts and juries to set aside last wills and testa-ments, and to substitute in lieu thereo juries to set aside last wills and testaments, and to substitute in lieu thereof their own notions as to what a testator should do with his property, is not to be encouraged. No right of the citizen is more to be valued than the power to dispose of his property by will. No right is more solemnly assured to him by the law. Nor does it depend in any sense upon the judicious exercise of it. It rarely happens that a man bequeaths his estate to the entire satisfaction of either his family or friends. The law wisely secures equality of distribution where a man dies intestate. But the very object of a will is to produce inequality and to provide for the wants of the testator's family, to protect those who are helpless; to reward those who have been affectionate, and to punish those who have been disobedient. It is doubtless true that narrow prejudice sometimes interferes with the wisdom of such arrangements. This is due to the imperfections of our human nature. It must times interferes with the wisdom of such arrangements. This is due to the imperfections of our human nature. It must be remembered that in this country a man's prejudices are a part of his liberty.

• • • Where a man has sufficient memory, and understanding to make a will, and such instrument is not the xesult of undue inflence, bit is the uncontrolled act of his own mind, it is not to be set aside in Pennsylvania without sufficient evidence, nor unon any sentimental cient evidence, nor upon any sentimental notions of equality."

THE dynamite used in the explosion of Hell Gate was equal in force to 250 tons of blasting powder.

They might find a likeness in Gen. Newton to St. Peter now, since the gates of Hell have not prevailed against him.
